Entered as Second-Class Matter Friday, February 19th, 1904 at the Postoffice at Barbourville, Knox County, Ky., under Act of Congress of March 2nd, 1879.
MOTTO—LIVE FOR OUR FRIENDS—DO THE GREATEST AMOUNT OF GOOD WE CAN TO THE LARGEST NUMBER OF PEOPLE.

Terms: $1. Per Year in Advance.

CANNING FACTORY

Should Be Erected in Barbourville.

Would Prove Profitable to Operators and Also to Farmers.

Frequently in the past we have urged upon our people that some one take up the proposition and establish a canning factory in our city, but the matter has not been acted upon as yet and still there is a splendid opportunity for some one with a little capital to make a snug fortune.

In this fertile valley and on the hills surrounding our city fruits and berries of all kinds grow to the highest stage of perfection, and yet on account of our location we can not put them on the market and compete with more favored locations.

But, if we had a factory located here that would take the crop that could be produced in this section and can it up, it could be consumed here and at a price that would be cheaper to the consumers than what they now have to pay for the same goods when shipped in here.

Thus there would be a saving in two ways, first by paying out less money for what we have to consume, and second by furnishing a market that would consume what we could produce at home thus creating a home market for the product of our farmers and furnishing employment both, to the farmer and those engaged in canning and handling the fruit.

With a properly equipped plant, the work of canning could start early in the season on strawberries, the cherries, blackberries, peaches, pears, plums, grapes, apples, corn, beans, sweet potatoes, pumpkins, etc., on until frost in the late fall.

In this manner the cannery could be kept in operation for the greater part of the year and it would afford an immense amount of labor to the girls and boys who without have practically nothing to do.

This of course would create a demand for a tinner to make to make the cans which could be done here better than anywhere else.

It would require only a small capital to start this great industry and we feel quite sure that it would yield at least 100 per cent on the investment.

Let some enterprising citizen take it up either independently or organize a stock company and put it into operation this year. It is not yet too late if taken up at once. Who will be the one to do it?

NOTICE

To all Road Overseers of Knox County:

You and each of you are hereby notified, ordered and directed to at once warn out the Militia road hands on the road section to which you belong, and proceed to put the county roads in good condition to travel.

After the winter freezing and the Spring rains the roads are in bad condition, and must be repaired forthwith.

Do not put this work off until you have leisure—do it now. The law imposes upon each overseer of roads the duty of keeping his section in good condition for travel the law will be enforced.

Respectfully,

F. D. Sampson,
Judge Knox County Court.
Barbourville, Ky., May 12, 1908.

BACCALAUREATE

Sermon of the Public High School Preached by Dr. Hitchcock.

Last Sunday morning the baccalaureate sermon of the graduating class of the public High School was preached by Dr. J. D. Hitchcock at the First Methodist Church.

The Southern Methodist church dismissed the congregation and all worshiped together in honor of the occasion.

Dr. Easley made the opening prayer, Rev. Godby, of the Southern Church read the scripture lesson, Rev. S. F. Kelley read the hymn and Dr. Hitchcock preached a very forceful sermon which was enjoyed by all present.

Louisville Under Taft Bosses.

The Hartford Republican, one of the staunchest Republican papers in the State, whose editor is Col. Cicero M. Barnett, for many years chairman of the State Central Committee, writes:

If the city newspapers are to be relied upon and of course they are (?) Louisville held one of her many disgraceful primaries last Saturday. This time it was a Republican primary but that makes no difference. It has been proven that in contests in Louisville Democrats will steal from Democrats and Republicans will steal from Republicans. Democrats will assault Democrats and Republicans will assault Republicans and the police will assault them all. The papers record that even an aged Republican cripple, an honorable citizen, last Saturday was set upon by a so-called officer, his crutch kicked from under him and the poor man otherwise abused while trying to exercise the rights of a citizen. The writer happens to know that Sam Harlag and he is an inoffensive honest old line Republican.

The newspapers also record that ballot boxes were stuffed, voters driven from the polls and other unspeakable outrages committed at the home of The Law and Order League.

We demand that the president of State Law and Order League call a meeting at once to look into those violations of the law and to offer rewards for the guilty. We also suggest that in view of past failures upon the part of the Louisville courts in many instances to bring offenders to justice that some method be devised to transfer the cases to county districts for trial where some sort of semblance of law and order prevails, and where the judges are elected by an honest ballot and unpurchable electors.—Whitely County Republican.

Delegate to Southern Baptist Convention.

Rev. L. B. Arvin, pastor of the Baptist Church, this city, left on Wednesday for Hot Springs, Ark., to attend the Southern Baptist Convention, which will assemble at that place the latter part of this and the first part of next week. Rev. Arvin went in the interest of the Church and Institute.

Uncle Geo. Vermillion Dead.

After an illness of three weeks of pneumonia, Mr. Geo. Vermillion, one of the oldest citizens of our city died at his home on River street. Further notice next week.

TAFT IN THE REAR

The War Secretary Met by a Solid Phalanx that Can't be Downed.

Field May Unite on Roosevelt.

The Whitley Republican is advised from Washington:

"It is now certain that the opposition to Secretary Taft will control the national convention by a majority of over one hundred votes. The last week was the fourth in which Secretary Taft has lost ground in the proportion of delegates committed to his cause. On the first of April Secretary Taft had more than half the delegates then elected in his instructed column. On the first of May less than one-third were so classified.

"During the past week the report has been widely circulated in behalf of Secretary Taft's candidacy that the opposing candidates have been mentioned as about to withdraw from the race. It may be stated authoritatively that these statements, in line with many others issued for the purpose of creating the belief that the nomination of Secretary Taft is assured, have no basis in fact.

"During the past week 146 delegates were elected. Of this number only 42 were instructed for Secretary Taft, although only 8 of these delegates were elected in so-called 'favorite son' States. The regular delegates chosen this week in the Thirtieth Ohio District are for Senator Foraker. This with 2 that have already been instructed for him and the delegates in three other districts, which his friends control, will give him a total of 10 votes in the State and prevent Secretary Taft from having a solid delegation in his home State.

"In Kentucky and Missouri the efforts of the Federal officeholders to control the selecting of delegates were attended by fraud and violence, resulting in delegations contested almost in their entirety. In Mississippi delegates to the State convention, including the State Chairman, were prevented from participating in the proceedings by armed men, although a large majority of the delegates regularly chosen were opposed to the program of the officeholders. The regular delegation is for Senator Foraker.

"Of the 734 delegates elected up to this time 237 are instructed for Secretary Taft and 247 for the opposition. One hundred and forty are uninstructed and 110 contested. A large majority of the uninstructed delegates are committed to the opposition, as the plan of the Taft management has been to secure instructed delegates wherever possible, while that of the opposition has been to send uninstructed delegates from outside the so-called 'favorite son' States. The plan of the Taft management, especially in the South has been to bring contests wherever their forces failed to be in the majority. A majority of the delegates will be committed to the opposition on the face of the returns and on the evidence, and therefore by the National Committee and convention will be seated.

"The feeling in Washington and all over the country is growing that Theory Roosevelt will be renominated.

Rev. C. K. Dickey, of Middlesboro, paid this office a pleasant call yesterday. Rev. Dickey was the pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at this place for quite a season and his host of friends here are always glad to hear of him and his well-doing.

BYRLEY

Re-Elected Chairman of County Committee

The precinct Committeemen met last Saturday afternoon and proceeded to elect a Chairman and Secretary of the Republican County Committee. As was predicted in these columns last week, W. W. Byrley was re-elected as Chairman, and J. H. Donaldson, of Grays, was elected Secretary.

A strong fight was made to try to defeat Chairman Byrley, but the opposition failed to muster sufficient strength to defeat him.

TAFT

Get's Majority of the Kentucky Delegates

Indiana Man Given Cold Deal by Federal Office Holders.

The State convention at Louisville last week instructed her delegates to the Chicago Convention to vote for W. H. Taft until he is nominated.

This was rather cold treatment to Mr. Fairbanks after he had come to Kentucky and helped us to win such a splendid victory last year. But the Fairbanks followers put up a game fight and went down with colors flying.

When the party allows such men as William Marshall Bullitt to take control of the reins of State politics and dictate to the people instead of listening to the advice of such tried and true leaders as Wm. O. Bradley, it is getting in danger of disastrous defeat.

We do not want to appear unnecessarily alarmed but we predict that the action of the State Convention last week will lose the State this year to the Republican party again, and if the same tactics that were used in Kentucky to carry the instructions for the big War Secretary were indulged in the other States of the Union, we would not be the least bit surprised to see the political government fall into the hands of the Democratic party next November.

Our observation has been that when the old guards are turned down and raw recruits put in their places the results are always disastrous to the party.

Every man, unless he be dead to the real meaning of life, has in his heart a desire to achieve success. He wants to do something that will make his living worth while. He has dreams of success which shine in splendor and woo him to earnestness and energy. He would like to make a name for himself that the world will remember and honor. It is always in order, therefore, to speak to boys of success.

Before we talk of about success however, we would define the word. What do we mean by success? We are told that a certain man who is now rich, that he began poor and is now rich, that he has risen from obscurity to great fame and power, we need to inquire how he reached his high place.

If he crawled to it through slime and mire; if he trampled conscience and the divine law under his feet as he went up; if he made his money by extortion or dishonesty, his apparent success is a wretched failure.

CIRCUS COMES AND GOES

Three Thousand People Royally Entertained

Col John Lowlow, Dean of Clowndom Still With the Big Show.

As advertised two week John Robinson's Circus, the largest and best now on the American continent (or any other, as to that,) was here Wednesday, and was greeted by a vast crowd of people, old and young, who had come into the city from the surrounding country. The parade at 11 o'clock, was splendid, Robinson's circus, from the early days of old Gov. Robinson, to the present time, is conducted on honest and business principle. They pay their bills promptly and without quibbling. The circus was just as advertised, and everything seen and done was first-class and clean in every respect. They are great people and have a great show. Col. John Lowlow, who known and loved by the entire world as the friend of children, and the fun-maker for millions, is still with the show and men of mature years of today recall with pleasure the antics of this famous clown and gentleman. Perfect order and harmony prevailed throughout the day.

THE MERRY WIDOW CRAZE

The Merry Widow Craze has overrun the land like the 'grip microbe' or the seven year locust.

Here in Kentucky it has become almost as disgusting as the plague of insects sent on Egypt to eat the chilled steel veneering off the heart of Pharaoh, the pharaoh.

Everything is the 'Merry Widow'! It's Merry Widow hats and hobbles, bonnets and bomboms, poses and plays, dresses and soft drinks, booze and booklets, and has been preached from Eastern pulpits, and the periodicals, from penny-posts to pretentious magazines, have Merry Widdieus and have it bad.

One would think the world had just found salvation, so loud and inebriated is its hosannahs; the Merry Widow has some new Paladium floated down from the blue dome of heaven on the wings of some transcendent genius; that after waiting and watching for six thousand years, a perfect exemplar of charming widowhood had been bequeathed to the world.

The Merry Widow Craze has struck us at last like a hungry tramp for a cold hand out. The Merry Widow Hat is the latest exploit on a suffering public and it's a nightmare turned loose; a veritable hoo-doo in this land of folly and foibles.

The Merry Widow has at last cast aside the conventional weeds of mourning and with bewitching smiles, cute airs and merry laughter, she has made the young debutants look like a plugged penny in the treasure box of old Ceresus. In her rambles, she has left her footprints on the primrose of pathway and made us slaves to her bewitching power. It's Merry Widow here and everywhere and the bacillus has got the whole He creation on the run. Wherever you go, the Merry Widow is ever present to greet you with a smile and set the world to wagging. With all her faults we love her still; but she should and must remove her hat.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The session of 1907-8 of the Graded School closes on Friday, May 15. The term has been a successful one in the advancement of its pupils and in good school work all along the line. In spite of the past epidemics of measles and small-pox the attendance has been phenomenally good, and at the close of the term quite a creditable per cent of the large enrollment is in attendance.

The Normal Class completing the Common School course is composed of first-class material, both in natural ability and in application. Their average on last examination are as follows: John Stanfill, 95.4; Dicy Mills, 93.5; Robt. Faulkner, 90.5; Mary Stansburg, 88.7; Guy Ballard, 94.3; Thos. Gregory, 90.7; Dan Herndon, 89.5; Mary Sawyers, 88.6; Earl Stanfill.

The enrollment for the year approximates three hundred. The High School passed a successful year. The following being promoted:

Lucy Tinsley, 99.4; Jessamine Ballard, 99.4; Lalla R. Johnson, 94.2; Land Throop, 94.2; Myrtle Cole, 93.6; Guy Dickerson, 91.8; Mollie Smith, 91; Mable Matthews, 89.6.

Memories of the Past.

Can anything be more pleasant in the busy humdrum of after years, than to permit your mind wander back to the days of school life, the sweet memories and incidents that come up, the smiling faces and pleasant countenances; the old school-house door, that has so often admitted you, swinging back and forth on its great hinges; the very walls speaking forth of happy; while at your side stands the noble teacher who has watched your every move, and is as much interested in your success as you yourself. As these pleasant recollections come back to one, the eyes almost moistened as he realizes those days are gone forever, and so many who took part in those happy hours, as well. As we sit and contemplate that never again in this life will those days return, that the participants who so joyously together in the school room and play ground pledged loyalty and faith to the dear old school, and whose memories are the most pleasant in our life, are scattered far and wide, and some departed forever to their eternal home. When this is realized, sad, indeed, is the heart, and the swiftness with which the years pass by makes one understand that we are journeying towards the setting sun.

The Pins.

The Graded School repeated its entertainment given on April 24th, last night at the chapel of the Baptist Institute. To-night at the Court House, the graduates of the eighth grade hold their commencement. Judge H. C. Faulkner addresses the class and Baker's Orchestra will furnish splendid music for the occasion.

Former Sheriff L. H. Jarvis, has announced to the voters of Knox county that he will be a candidate for Sheriff. His announcement will appear in next issue of this paper.

State of Washington Has a Constitutional Amendment to Permit Classification of Property For Taxation Purposes.

In common with other states that are seriously considering the betterment of tax laws, Washington comes to the front with a proposition to amend its state constitution.

The pertinent paragraph in the proposed amendment reads: "The power of taxation shall never be surrendered, suspended or contracted away. Taxes shall be uniform upon the same class of subjects, and shall be levied and collected for public purposes."

CANDIDATES ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Primary June 6th, 1908.

For Congress.

We are authorized to announce
COL. JOHN G. MATTHEWS, of Barbourville, Knox County,
as a candidate for Member of the dist. Congress from the Eleventh District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Republican primary to be held June 6th, 1908.

For Jailer.

We are authorized to announce
FLANNERY HAM, of GIBBSBURG, as a candidate for Jailer of Knox County, subject to the action of the Republican party, in primary election.

For Assessor.

We are authorized to announce
DANIEL GRACE, of BARLEY SWITCH, as a candidate for the office of Assessor of Knox County, subject to the action of the Republican party in primary.

For Surveyor.

We are authorized to announce
FRANCIS M. REES, of BERTHA, as a candidate for the office of County Surveyor, subject to the action of the Republican primary.

FOR SHERIFF.

We are authorized to announce
JOHN W. HUTTON, of FRANKEL,
as a candidate for Sheriff of Knox County, subject to the action of the Republican Primary.

We are authorized to announce
S. H. JONES, of GIBBSBURG,
as a candidate for Sheriff of Knox County, subject to the action of the Republican Primary.

The burden now will rest upon Hignite & Co., to show their ability in getting out the votes this fall. They have endeavored to relegate the old guard to the rear and usurp authority to themselves.

We will watch with considerable interest to see the results when it comes to polling the vote of Knox county at the November election. That is the place to test their ability to be real leaders.

Col. Matthews called up Mr. Edwards last Monday morning by phone and asked him for a list of his speaking dates. Edwards replied that he had no dates arranged. Matthews asked Edwards if he would accompany him if he (Matthews) would arrange a list of dates to which Edwards replied that he would see about it.

Does that look like Edwards had whipped Matthews out of the race?

The truth is, that Matthews has proven so much superior to Edwards in the campaign that he dreads to come in contact with Col. Matthews and is trying to avoid meeting him.

Col. Matthews spoke in Middlesboro Tuesday and then went to Whitley county, where he has spent the greater part of the week, and will continue in the fight until the close of the polls on June 6, when victory will perch upon his banner.

A Fight to the Finish.

Now that the precinct, county, district and State conventions are all over we can settle down to our Congressional contest and fight it to the finish.

The Edwards followers had hoped that by gaining control of the county and district organization that Matthews would be eliminated from the race and that he would become discouraged and quit, but in this they were sorely disappointed and Col. Matthews is still out and is making his campaign as though he had won every thing he had undertaken.

Col. Matthews knows that the Eleventh district was for Fairbanks, and while the Taft-Edwards crowd, by force took control of the convention and refused to recognize the credentials that were properly signed by the County Chairman, yet these same delegates will have to account to their various counties for their conduct.

The people will not stand for such unprincipled conduct, and will show their contempt by voting against D. C. Edwards on June 6, next.

The people are for Matthews, and are opposed to machine methods and the vote in the June primary will show this to be true.

Early Mistakes.

Who would imagine that Thomas Buchanan Read, the author of "Sheridan's Ride," a man of infinite genius, who ranks with the great but erratic poets of America, was once a cigar maker and a sign painter? Of course, it is no secret that James Whitcomb Riley, whose poems of childhood have delighted so many, was not only a sign painter, but at one time essayed to be an actor. Victorien Sardou studied medicine before he made up his mind to be a dramatist. Brete Harte was a composer in a newspaper office and a miner before he charmed the world with "The Heathen Chinese," and "The Luck of Roaring Camp." Henry Wallace Shaw (Josh Billings,) was a farmer and deck hand on an Ohio River steamboat, and an auctioneer. Probably the experience he gained in these unique callings made him so successful as a humorist of the phonetic type.

George Keenan was a telegraph operator before he began to write about "Darkest Russia." He conceived the idea of his future work while constructing telegraph lines in Siberia. Last, but not least, and perhaps the most conspicuous one of "Jack of all trades" who finally strikes his real vocation in middle life, is Jerome K. Jerome, who was in turn tutor, actor, journalist, shorthand writer and solicitor's clerk, ending up as the author of the famous "Three Men in a Boat" and other humorous books which convulsed readers on both sides of the Atlantic.—George Barton, in Uncle Remus—The Home Magazine for May.

Good Bye.

It is a hard word to speak. Some may laugh that it should be, but let them. Icy hearts are never kind. It is a word that has choked many an utterance, and started many a tear. The hand is clasped, the word is spoken, we part, and are out on the ocean of time—we go to meet again, where? God only knows. It may be soon. It may be never. Take care that your good-bye is not a cold one—it may be the last one you can give. Ere you meet again death's cold hand may have closed his eyes and chained his lips for ever. Ah! he may have died thinking you loved him not. Again it may be a long separation. Friends crowd on and give you their hands. How do you detect in each goodbye the love that lingers there; and how may you bear with the memory of these parting words many days? We must separate. Tear not yourself away with a careless boldness that defies all love, but make your words linger—give your heart full utterance—and if tears fall, what of it? Tears are not unmanly.

Dr. H. R. Cecil.

"Turn that wrapping paper the other side out," said a lady in a dry goods store this morning as the clerk was putting up her purchase on a printed wrapping paper. "I don't want to be a walking advertisement to your store. I read the Advocate as all intelligent people ought to do, and I think in that paper is the place to advertise your business. Instead of asking your customers to carry your sign around with each purchase of goods, go and tell the people through the Advocate what you have to sell and how you sell it."

A school boy's composition on "The Editor," ran as follows: "The editor is one of the happiest beggars in the world. He can go to the circus in the afternoon and evening without paying a farthing, also inquests and hangings. He has free tickets to the theaters, gets wedding cake (?) sent to him and sometimes gets licked, but not often if he has a side entrance to escape, but he usually takes it back in the next issue. While other folks have to go to bed early, the editor can sit up every night and see all that is going on."

A Night of Fun With the College Boys.

The young men of Union College are arranging and have about perfected plans for an entertainment to be given one evening during commencement.

This entertainment is entitled, A night of fun with the college boys. The entertainment is comprehensive in its scope and will carry the mind of the audience to the always ludicrous and interesting negro, including a thrilling farce.

The mind of the audience will then be turned to the national idea. Here will be given an opportunity to view the different characteristics of the foreign element of beloved America.

Last but not least, and where the college boys will bring out their real selves is in the college division.

A thrilling farce showing the idea of a young college man in society, and the overflowing good spirits and buoyancy of the college men, will be fully displayed. The management intends to make this the best entertainment ever produced in Barbourville by local talent, notice the papers for fuller explanations and programme, then you will be convinced for yourself.

S. H. JONES FOR SHERIFF

Elsewhere in this issue appears the announcement of Mr. S. H. Jones, of Girdler precinct as a candidate for Sheriff.

Mr. Jones is too well known throughout Knox county for us to say anything that the people do not already know. He is a life-long Republican and has always been a strong party worker and has never before asked the voters of his native county for office. He is a brother to our popular Circuit Court Clerk, J. R. Jones, and also of Dr. T. W. Jones one of the leading physicians of the county.

For years he has been engaged in merchandising and dealing in live stock, which has been a great convenience to his neighbors who wished to buy or sell.

If he is elected he will, no doubt make a worthy, and we believe, a faithful official. He places his claims in the hands of his friends and will abide by the result.

People who are charged with a good supply of bad whiskey will do things which they would shun to do in their sane moments as they would to put their hands into burning fire. Men are transformed from respectable citizens into demons and will commit depredations that they will regret all their lives and the disgrace of which will follow them as long as life lasts. Why will they so far lose all self respect as to give themselves over to the demon drink.

"What constitutes a day's work?"

We figure it out that it depends altogether on your occupation. If you lay brick, eight hours; if you keep a house, sixteen hours; if you preach the gospel, two hours; if you are a porter in a sleeping car, twenty hours; if you serve the government, one hour; and if you are a newspaper man, twenty-four hours, besides being pursued by the devil.

A lady in an adjoining town spied what she supposed to be her pet kitten in the cistern making a terrible ado. Her love for the pet made her determined to rescue it at all hazards. She applied a rake but of no use, so in she jumped when the water came up to her neck. Shortly after her husband arrived, fired her out and discovered the kitten on the roof while its shadow was reflected in the water.

The tennis girl goes out to play her nerve-producing game; the flirt girl goes out larking because her life's too tame; the reading girl betakes herself into the world of books; the scheming girl to the sea-side goes to fish with artful hooks; the flirting girl goes anywhere she thinks there is a man; the dressy girl goes to Paris to buy a dress and fan, and capture a prince of a man; the beauty goes upon the stage to show her handsome looks; but the girl that gets the husband stays right at home and cooks.

Young man, that beautiful girl whom you worship as a pillar of unadulterated sweetness doesn't contain even three ounces of sugar. It has been shown by analysis that a young person weighing 154 pounds is composed of 96 pounds of water, 3 pounds of the white of eggs, a little less than 1 pound of glue, 34 1/2 pounds of fat, 84 pounds of phosphate of lime, 3 ounces of sugar and starch, 7 ounces of chloride of calcium, 6 ounces of phosphate of magnesium and a little ordinary salt. All this to be covered with an expensive "Merry Widow" hat.
